Scott Gainer, CFO/Treasurer, reviewed the five-year forecast with the Board. The forecast reflected the operational savings from the closing of Wiley Middle School and the negotiations savings resulting from moving four pays forward out of fiscal year 2014. Although no staff reductions are anticipated at this time, some savings may occur in 2015-2016 when the high school moves to the Wiley campus. Mr. Gainer indicated that the Lay Finance Committee will review this forecast and report to the Board with a recommendation for the next levy, which has been delayed until 2015.

BOARD PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Board President Ron Register reported that while a great deal of work has been done with the facilities plan, there is still much to be accomplished. The Board will continue to periodically allow public comment at work sessions related to facilities. Other work sessions will be closed, as usual, to public comment.
