

MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. SHORT ESSAY CONTEST

Mayor Michael Dylan Brennan invites children of all ages living in or attending school in University Heights to enter an essay contest in celebration of Dr. King's 90th birthday.

King's message remains important today as we still are striving to make his dream a reality.

What do the words of Martin Luther King, Jr. mean to you, and how do they apply to the world today?

Participants are asked to respond to the above question in 500 words or less. Award winners will be invited to City Hall for an awards presentation. One winner will be chosen per participating school (public, private, and home schoolers). Email essays to info@universityheights.com by Tuesday, January 15th at 4:30 p.m.
