POPULAR ANNUAL FINANCIAL REPORT FOR THE FISCAL YEAR ENDED JUNE 30, 2017

CLEVELAND UNIVERSITY HEIGHTS CITY SCHOOL DISTRICT UNIVERSITY HEIGHTS, OHIO
Ohio’s school finance structure is based on the premise of a shared responsibility between the state and local school districts to fund the cost of public education. However, the sharing is disproportionate, with local school districts funding the majority via property taxes. This system has been found unconstitutional four times by the Ohio Supreme Court due to the overreliance on property taxes, but nothing has been done by the legislature to address the issue.

Districts are funded by placing property tax levies on the ballot for a specified millage, which is the unit of value for expressing the rate of property taxes in Ohio. Each mill equals $1 for every $1,000 of assessed property value. Homeowners only pay taxes on the assessed value, which is 35% of the property’s market value.

Unfortunately the property tax revenue does not grow with inflation due to House Bill 920, which freezes what districts receive at the amount at the time each levy is passed. As property values increase, the amount of revenue to the district remains the same. This is why all districts are periodically required to return to voters to ask for a new levy—costs continue to rise while revenue is flat.

The amount of state funds that a district receives is based on a formula that takes into account the student enrollment and the property wealth of the district. Districts may also receive additional funding based on disadvantaged pupils or students with special needs.

Additionally, districts may receive a small amount of money from the federal government for things such as partial reimbursement for serving Medicaid-eligible students.

More detailed explanations on school funding topics written by Jayne Geneva, Chair of the CH-UH Lay Finance Committee, can be viewed on the Finance and Development page of chuh.org.
I am pleased to present the second Popular Annual Financial Report (PAFR) of the Cleveland Heights-University Heights City School District. This document is a result of District Strategic Plan Goal 5 and is another tool to keep the community well-informed about how resources are being used for school and student performance.

We have long been committed to quality reporting and transparency, preparing a voluntary Comprehensive Annual Financial Report (CAFR) for the last 17 years. We are also excited to have been recently recognized with the Auditor of State Award with Distinction for the high quality of our reporting and our continued work to ensure clean, accountable, and efficient government.

Despite our District’s history of financial transparency, improving the school finance knowledge of our community is now more critical than ever as we face increased funding challenges in public education, particularly in Ohio, from the continued overreliance on property taxes to the growing loss of dollars through voucher programs—now in excess of $8.3 million annually in CH-UH.

I am happy to share that in the last year we refinanced the bond debt originally issued in 2014 for the high school and middle school facilities projects, saving our taxpayers $5 million in interest over the life of the bonds. Additionally, the District partnered with Heights Libraries to sell the former Coventry Elementary School building, further streamlining District operations. I truly appreciate the history of strong financial support by our community, and these actions are examples of our serious commitment to fiscal responsibility.

Thank you for taking the time to review this PAFR. I encourage you to contact my office with questions or feedback on this report so that we can continue to refine it and make it as informative as possible moving forward.
VOUCHER PROGRAMS

The revenue the District receives from the state is offset by voucher program payments. CH-UH will lose more than $8.3 million during the 2017-2018 school year alone to charter schools and vouchers, and this number continues to grow.
