

Shipwreck Camp

Case Western Reserve University

Weekdays July 11 – 22, 2016
9:30 am – 3:30 pm

Inspired by the research and exploration of Dr. Robert Ballard, finder of the wreckage of the Titanic, Shipwreck Camp will engage campers in field science and exploration. Youth ages 12-15 participate in an expedition to find shipwrecks in Lake Erie.

Campers will:

- read novels related to exploration
- meet local experts
- build remotely operated vehicle for underwater exploration
- use the tools of a scientist and conduct field research
- immerse themselves in an introduction to SCUBA
- virtually find a Lake Erie shipwreck

Cost: $530 (includes a $25 non-refundable application fee)

For More Information

Visit gelfand.case.edu

Inquiries should be directed to:
Kathryn Kwiatkowski
216.368.5075
kmk21@case.edu

LEONARD GELFAND
STEM CENTER

Limited Scholarships Available